A MESSAGE OF ENCOURAGEMENT FOR 2024 THE TIME TRAVELER

Everytime that you read this, I want you to be alert and aware that there are many voices in today's society, and yes, some of them are devised to cause the type of distractions that can easily lead us onto paths of spiritual and natural destruction. John 10:10 says, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Also, read Jude 1:3-4.

Time is an interesting concept. Before God created the heavens and the earth there was no time. God is eternal, and therefore he is outside of time. And yet God entered time when Jesus Christ took on human flesh and was born into our world to save us from sin.

We like to think that we are masters of time. We even have atomic clocks these days to measure time out precisely to the nanosecond, but we don't really understand time. There are times when time seems to go rushing by, and then other times when the clock seems to stand still. There are times when we are very much aware of time – such as when we are working on a project with a deadline, racing the clock, fighting against time. And then there are those wonderful times when we take off our watches, enjoying a day of leisure and rest, and we hardly notice the passing of time at all. (It's on those days I like to call wrist watches "the handcuffs of time.")

Benjamin Franklin wrote: "Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for time is the stuff life is made of." And so, today I want us to look at three Biblical principles that will help you with this thing called time and will help you to make your time count. When you make your time count, you make your life count, because time is the stuff life is made of.

Number 1: Seek God first, Matthew 6:33. Number 2: Find balance in your time, Ecclesiastes 3:11. Number 3: Make the most of every opportunity, Ecclesiastes 9:10. I believe that when you follow these 3 pivotal points throughout the year, you will find that you have learned to understand time and manage it well. Finally, I encourage you to always leave room for God to change your plans. You've probably heard the old saying: "Do you want to make God laugh? Just tell him your plans!" Proverbs 16:9 says, "In his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord determines his steps." God can overrule at any time, so let him. He knows better than you how best to apportion your time. We must learn to listen to the voice of the Lord in order to understand the will of the Lord.

CONCLUSION: Well, space will not allow me the place to share more, but I encourage you to give God every moment of your day and He will give you his love, peace, joy... wisdom, the more. So, how do you make your time count? Follow these three biblical principles:

Principle #1: Your days are numbered, so number your days.

Principle #2: There is a time for everything, so manage your time well.

Principle #3: The days are evil, so be careful how you live.

"Only one life, 'twill soon be past; only what's done for Christ will last." Time is a precious gift from God. Don't waste the time you've been given. Make your time count, both for now and eternity.

As we go through-out this coming year together, let us, ALLOW GOD TO LIVE IN US, WORK THROUGH US, AND GUIDE US. When we do these things, we shall always be in a place to grow, as we go.
