

DEACONS' UNION

The term deacon comes from the Greek word diákonos meaning “servant.” The word, which appears at least 29 times in the New Testament, designates an appointed member of the local church who assists by serving other members and meeting material needs.

Official Deacons' Union Attire for OFFICIAL DAYS in the North Carolina Diocese.

OFFICIAL ATTIRE: Navy Blue Blazer with official blue and gold patch.

